HEADTEACHER Required for September 2015

Group 2
Salary Range L14-L19
N.O.R: 270 (rising to 315 by 2018)

St. Mary's is a school where "good teaching means pupils achieve well and activities both in and out of lessons provide pupils with many memorable experiences and promote a very strong love of learning" June 2013

Due to a career move for our highly valued head teacher after 17 years of exceptional leadership and dedicated service, our school is now seeking to appoint an inspirational and dynamic individual to continue to lead our expanding and popular school.

St Mary's School:

- is a warm, friendly and family-centred school with happy, motivated children who enjoy learning, underpinned by a strong Catholic ethos;
- has a strong team of dedicated and supportive staff who put children at the heart of everything they do;
- has a strong, experienced and committed Governing Body, supportive of the school's vision;
- has good relationships with parents & carers, the parish and the wider local community.

St Mary's school is seeking someone who:

- is a practising, committed Catholic who is capable of sustaining the outstanding Catholic nature and spirituality of our school and of nurturing and developing our strong Catholic ethos.
- has a strong vision to continue to raise standards in all aspects of teaching and learning, and build on the school's achievements;
- has a proven track record of achieving excellence and high expectations in senior leadership;
- has the ability to nurture, lead and inspire both staff and pupils to reach their full potential;
- has excellent skills in monitoring, data analysis and communication.

To request an application pack please contact Mrs A Liu, Clerk to the Governors.
