HEADTEACHER Starting Salary: £50,544 to £53,000

An excellent opportunity, for a current or aspiring Headteacher, to drive our school forward and shape its future.

The Marist is a growing and much loved Catholic primary school in Surrey that combines a caring Catholic ethos with a thirst for learning and continual improvement. Ofsted judged us to be a "good school" in January 2015 and we are continuing on our journey towards outstanding. We currently admit 60 children aged 4-11 each year and will be a full two form primary by September 2017 when our NOR will be 420.

The ideal candidate will demonstrate the ability, energy and experience to continually raise standards and provide an outstanding Catholic education for our pupils.

Leading our school community to further develop its great potential, they will:

- Be a committed, practising Catholic engaged in the life of the Parish
- Have a proven track record of improving achievement through excellent teaching
- Be an inspirational senior leader whose inclusive leadership style supports, empowers and raises achievement
- Effectively manage change and resources to ensure delivery of best outcomes for our pupils
- Possess excellent communication skills, a cohesive approach and a positive attitude towards challenge

We can offer:

- Enthusiastic and engaged children who are proud of their school
- A team of dedicated, motivated and talented staff, supported by ambitious cohesive senior leadership professionals
- Supportive community of parents; governors; parish; partnership schools; local authority and Diocese
- Professional development and leadership support and the chance to inspire and develop future leaders
- Opportunities to work collaboratively with a range of learning partners
- A pivotal role with real impact, enabling our pupils to develop to their highest academic, social, moral and spiritual potential

If you feel that you are ready for this next most important stage in your career and you have the skills and dynamism to make a difference, please find out more and apply.
